DAY 6 - 8 MAY 2019

Budapest

#dowhatyouwant with an epic free day in Budapest! We hope you feel nice and rested this morning, because you can begin the day with an optional city bike tour. On this ride you'll see the Castle District, the Royal Palace, the Fisherman's Bastion, and the Chain Bridge - just to name a few! Or, check out the Ervin Szabo library for a slice of quiet contemplation. For any history lovers, we recommend finding your way to the Shoes on the Danube Promenade. These chilling, iron shoes stand in monument to the thousands executed along the riverbank during WWII. Anyone looking for a quick way up to Castle Hill should consider taking the funicular. Built in 1870, this incline railway is a spectacular attraction. Tonight, join your guide for what is for many, a highlight of Budapest; the river cruise. Glide past major attractions such as the Parliament Building, Gellert Hill, the Buda Castle District and Margaret Island, all while tucking in to a buffet dinner of local Hungarian specialties. Raise your glass with your fellow
